SUBJECT: CUSTOMS CLEARANCE AUTHORITY

Dear Sir/Madam,

In accordance with Section 181 of the Australian Customs Act 1901, we hereby authorize Aspac Freight Pty Ltd, trading as Cargo Transport and/or their duly appointed Agents, to act on our behalf, as customs brokers for the customs clearance and associated activities relating to this company's imported cargo.

This authority takes immediate effect: we agree to pay all charges incurred on our behalf relating to duties, GST and freight together with the clearance and delivery fees. We agree any storage, detention and demurrage fees are the responsibility of the importer. We also acknowledge receipt and confirmation of Aspac Freight Pty Ltd Conditions of Trade.

We, therefore, request that you advise Aspac Freight Pty Ltd / Cargo Transport of any and all import consignments addressed to our company.

General Quotation Conditions

Unless otherwise stated BAF is not included, which is determined by the shipping companies and is subject to change with or without prior notice.

Please note that although rates are quoted in foreign currency, the actual freight will be debited to your company in Australian dollars, based on our cost rate of exchange.

Unless specified, all quarantine / fumigation or storage charges where applicable are additional.

Local transport is quoted based on the use of standard flattop vehicles. Waiting time on vehicles held up whilst carrying your cargo can be subject to additional cost.

Customs duties / GST and ICS fees are additional to this quote if applicable.

All rates herein are for the carriage of general / in gauge cargo only unless otherwise specified.

Hazardous cargo is upon application, and is subject to acceptance and approval by destination agent and shipping line prior to acceptance of booking.

Volumetric charges may apply to your cargo depending on its nature. For airfreight 1cbm = 167kg. For seafreight LCL 1cbm = 1000kg.

All charges require receipt of payment prior to the cargo being delivered unless prior arrangements have been agreed to.

Additional services outside the normal customs clearance function shall be charged according to time and personnel required.

Our quotation is exclusive of GST to be incurred on taxable supplies, where applicable.

Cargo transit insurance is not included in our services unless specified. Therefore, unless we are otherwise instructed we understand that the responsibility of arranging insurance will be between your company and your insurer.

All rates / quotations are valid for 30 days from quotation date unless otherwise specified.

All business is undertaken in accordance with our "Standard Trading Conditions" and with the "Conditions" shown on the Air Waybill / Bill of Lading, a copy of which is available per your request, and which, in certain circumstances exclude the company's liability and include certain indemnities which benefit the company.
